

At the University of Richmond, you'll find all of the features and opportunities you expect from a top-ranked national university. Our core commitment to fostering intellectual independence means that every student, regardless of major, integrates learning across a variety of disciplines. Our five schools—arts and sciences, business, leadership studies, law, and professional and continuing studies—provide opportunities for broad exploration, focused pursuit of careers, and development of the professional skills and connections that propel our students to quick starts, however they choose to begin their post-college lives. Richmond is for the intellectually ambitious.
